

THE ATLANTIC HOTEL

Winter Newsletter

2010

The year has begun with a tremendous show of support for The Atlantic Hotel from our Berlin community. The Victorian Christmas Celebration, which involves all of our downtown businesses, was a spectacular success. Shop and gallery owners expressed pleasure seeing so many more people strolling our Historic District and visiting the many attractions during 2009.

Children and adults alike delighted in our annual Christmas Parade with Santa, the horse and carriage rides, the caroling, the big community Christmas tree and the lighting ceremony, plus, the Dickens Dinners and the holiday concerts w/dinner were only part of the month-long celebration in Berlin's Historic District. Shopping at each of Berlin's unique boutique shops proved an experience not to be missed. And, on the night of Moonlight Madness, the entire town was out meeting and greeting friends and neighbors and finishing the Christmas shopping in hopes of great bargains and perfect gifts.

And, the memories linger of a beautiful, peaceful Christmas season. The Atlantic Hotel won second prize in the Greater Ocean City Chamber's lighting contest for the Drummer's Café indoor holiday lighting. The hotel was resplendent in its Victorian decoration lighting the main staircase from the lobby to the second floor guest rooms. A tall tree filled with birds, roses, ribbon, bows and jewel colored balls graced the entrance hall leading to the Café and the Atlantic Ballroom.
